Acceptance Janitorial Service is the company the church has used for many years to do cleaning. Before Christmas, Acceptance was asked to clean and wax the Fellowship Hall. A price was quoted of about $500 to complete this task. When the bill from Acceptance was opened for December cleaning, there was no charge for the extra work. In checking with Acceptance they said “Merry Christmas”! Since we have been a long standing customer of their company they wanted to do this for CHUM! It is not very often, if ever, you are not charged for a service like this or any service. I wanted everyone to know there are still good and caring people around. You read of stories like this and I wanted everyone to know that it has come home to us. A thank you letter will be sent from CHUM.
